The Senior Class of Maroa High School proudly presents the 1959 Trojanaire in appreciation for four rewarding years of fun and knowledge. We sincerely thank all those faculty and students whose efforts made this yearbook possible.

To Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Boyd, whose patience and wisdom have helped us realize the many opportunities of life, we, the Senior Class of 1959, dedicate this annual.

The security of the United States, today or in the future, rests upon the ability of our schools to develop the truly educated person. Problems that arise almost hourly call for an abiding faith, broad general knowledge, open-mindedness, an understanding of human frailties, a resiliency of spirit, a fairness of mind, and a clarity of thought. We try to develop and nurture these fundamental qualities at Maroa High.

Class Poem

We all did pass from class to class,
This study loving Freshman class.
We started in the grades below,
To study things we did not know.

The Sophomore class had a good deal of fun,
The picnics and frolics we did not shun.
In class as well many frolics we had,
The kind of fun that makes teachers mad.

Not only in studies were we Juniors wise;
We also received another prize,
For in brawn as well as in brain,
We Juniors gained wide-spread fame.

And now of our work, justly proud are we,
The best class in high school as you can see,
In attention and manners we excel,
For teachers and students all speak of us well.

We Seniors, so solemn and dignified,
With all our might and courage tried,
To outdo the Seniors of other years,
And leave nothing behind us but shine and cheers.

Judy Daggett

Class History

In August, 1955, the class of "59" got its start in Maroa High School. Mr. Hershel Tapp and Mrs. Carolyn Cunningham were in charge of the group of 46 eager students. Officers were Gary McClung as President; Dale Fathauer, Vice President; Lynette Boyer, Secretary; Larry James, Treasurer. Our Homecoming Queen Candidates were Lynette Boyer and Barbara Sullivan. During the year we gained Iantha Housel, Donna Poth, and Bill Johnson. We lost Jack Clark, Imogene Fultz, and Bill Johnson.

We started our sophomore year with 48 not-quite-so-eager students. Mr. Richard Hackl and Mrs. Carolyn Cunningham were our advisors. We chose as officers: Sally Blickensderfer, President; Dale Fathauer, Vice President; Curtis Wilson, Secretary; Barbara Sullivan, Treasurer. Judy Jackson and Toni Hughes were chosen as our Homecoming Queen Candidates. Christmas Dance Candidates were Carol Hodges, Barbara Sullivan, Ron Hilliard, and Gary McClung. Sweetheart Dance Candidates were Sally Blickensderfer, Judy Elliot, Harold Marlow, and Curtis Wilson. Sadie Hawkins Candidates were Sylvia Edgecombe and Judy Elliot. During the year we gained Gary Hayes and we lost Dale Fathauer, Darlene Brown, Helen Garren, and Donna Poth.

Our sponsors for our third year at M.H.S. were Mr. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Carolyn Cunningham. Chosen as officers were: Tom Dash, President; Carol Hodges, Vice President; Judy Daggett, Secretary; Sally Blickensderfer and Gary McClung, Co-Treasurers. We chose as Homecoming Candidates Pat Woolums and Barb Sullivan and Gene Lowe and Gary McClung. As Christmas King and Queen Candidates, the class chose Carol Hodges, Judi Jackson, Larry James, and Harold Marlow. Our Junior Class Play, "Curtain Call For Clifford" was a real blast. Our Junior-Senior Prom at the Decatur Elks' Club was one of the best in many years. (at least we thought so.) This year we lost Karen Brady, Joe Cole, Ron Hilliard, Iantha Housel, Lynette Morgan, Barbara Sullivan, and Joanne Withers.

Mr. Frank Johnson was our advisor as we began the last year of our 4-year journey through M.H.S. As officers we chose: Carol Hodges, President; Gary McClung, Vice President; Judi Jackson, Secretary; and Judy Elliot, Treasurer. Homecoming Candidates were Lynette Boyer, Pat Woolums, Gene Lowe, Gary McClung. Lynette and Gary were chosen to reign. We chose Judy Elliot, Nancy Little, Everett Grissom and Gary McClung as Christmas Candidates. Judy and Everett were elected. The Senior Play was a great success. During the year we gained Pat James and Karen Journey and lost Pat James.

The Senior Class will always remember Maroa High School.

Class Prophecy

LARRY ANDERSON - is having open house so everyone can see his new motel. He calls it the "Brelsfoard Motel."

BILL BIRGE - world's best photographer, has just won first prize on his magnificent photograph of "The Underwater Football Game."

SALLY BLICKENSDERFER - is doing very well with her small store in Paris. She owns the famous "Intrigue Perfume Salon." It is a well known fact, that Miss Blickensderfer makes her own cologne and sells it for ten dollars a drop.

LYNETTE BOYER - was elected as the number one airline stewardess of the year. She is a stewardess of the Pan American Airlines.

DAVID BRADEN - a successful farmer, has just completed the erection of his beautiful new farm home, while all the single girls in the vicinity are wondering who the lucky lady will be. Don't be too hopeful, girls, David's bashful.

RICHARD COLE - is the main feature at the "Hot Shot Saloon." He is known as the one man chorus line.

JUDY DAGGETT - is now widely known as the fastest typist in the world. She says she owes all of her success to her commercial teacher of M.C.H.S.

TOM DASH - has just returned from a trip to the moon. He says he's looking for someone out of this world.

SYLVIA EDGECOMBE - manages several restaurants. The most popular and busiest is the "Sky-Hi Restaurant" in Clinton.

JUDY ELLIOT - has just been given the great honor of being chosen "Miss Giggle Box" of 1969.

LILA FORNWALT - has been selected out of a group of seventy-eight women as "Miss Lemon." When asked how she did it, Miss Fornwalt answered, "I squeezed, and squeezed, and squeezed."

RONDALEE GARFOOT - is the new owner of the Powder-Puff Cosmetic Firm.

ROLLIN GOODRICH - is now running a used car lot. His motto is, "Buy now, one of my used cars, and you will soon be coming for another one.

ROXIE HARRIS - has a regular jam session in her home. She has a drummer, a saxophonist, a pianist, a dancer, and a ukulele player.

EVERETT GRISSOM - is a dangerous dare devil at the "Day" Speedway.

OREN GROVES - has a successful implement company in Maroa.

EDDIE HALL and GARY HAYES - Inc., are now turning out "Flintless" cigarette lighters for people who don't smoke. Eddie and Gary tell us that business is doing very well.

BARBARA HENSLEY - was named "American Mother." She is the mother of twelve children.

CAROL HODGES - is modeling clothes for a well known magazine. She starts on a tour of Europe next month.

MARCIA HUGHES - is a private secretary in California for a big business firm.

TONIA HUGHES - is now in Europe studying the technique of foreign paintings.

JUDI JACKSON - was given the TV Emmy for her spectaular performance of the year.

KAREN JOURNEY - has just finished her latest movie, "At the End of the Trail."

JUDY LIMING - has just been seen driving her black and white Ford around town. She is our new lady cop.

NANCY LITTLE - is now a beauty operator in New York. Her latest creation is the "Poodle-Ponytail."

GENE LOWE - is now a busy man running his silk-worm farm in Spin Yoo, China. He finds that most of the work comes from naming his three million little pets.

GARY McCLUNG - is the new chemistry teacher at M. C.H.S. He has graduated from four universities since he left Maroa and is very nicely prepared for the work.

HAROLD MARLOW - is now the editor of "The Lonely Hearts Club." He takes care of the lonely hearts personally.

PHILLIP ODLE - can be seen anytime in the Yankee Stadium. He sells refreshments in the concession stand at all times.

PHYLLIS PULLIAM - is famous over the world for her new style of dress designing. She calls it the "Pulliam-Pull."

WALTER QUERY - can be heard three days a week at the stock yard where he auctions "biting sows." He is the new auctioneer for the state of Illinois.

BOB ROSE - now writes a lovelorn column. The column is known as Rose's Method of Making Girls Swoon."

PHILLIP REASON - has a baby sitting business in Decatur for all blonde-haired babies.

NADINE SKELTON - is a telephone operator. She says she can make more connections that way.

GLEN STREICH - is the world famous inventor of "Grow Hair Tonic."

DARRELL WATTLES - has won the title of champion weight lifter, when he lifted one foot after not moving for ten years.

CURTIS WILSON - is the manager of the famous "Red-Heads" basketball team. This is an all girl team.

PAT WOOLUMS - is the proud mother of eleven boys. They are to be the famous "Thomas Football Team."

PAT GIBSON - is now a nurse for one of the world's largest hospitals. Her latest invention is the Lacky Zippy Zipper, now used in all incisions.

Class Will

One night as I was passing our beloved halls of ivy, M.H.S., I spied a light in the English Department. As I had time on my hands, I dragged myself, once again, up the stairs to the third floor to see what the commotion was; and there to my wondering eyes did appear - a bunch of frazzle-headed seniors, with bloodshot eyes, trying to decide which of their wondrous talents and possessions they would bestow upon the lucky underclassmen. Glancing over the shoulders of one of the browbeaten seniors, I happened to see the following Last Will and Testament of the outstanding Senior Class of 1959...

I, LARRY ANDERSON, bequeath my Studebaker to Bard Brelsford.

I, LYNETTE BOYER, bequeath my Homecoming crown to next year's queen.

I, SALLY BLICKENSDERFER, bequeath my ability to not be sent to the office during my four years of high school to Norman Lehman.

I, BILL BIRGE, bequeath my ability to take math and pass it for four years to Charles Harrington.

I, DAVID BRADEN, bequeath my quiet ways to David Lemons.

I, RICHARD COLE, bequeath my ability to be engaged while just a junior to anyone who thinks they want to try it.

I, JUDY DAGGETT, bequeath my ability to bring my gym clothes every week for four years to Janice Hicks.

I, TOM DASH, bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Johnson to Ronnie Gossman.

I, SYLVIA EDGECOMBE, bequeath my ability to go to school, work night shift, and date to anyone who thinks they can do it.

I, JUDY ELLIOT, bequeath my energy to Opal Clark.

I, LILA FORNWALT, bequeath Sonny B. to Betty H. because she says she wants him.

I, RONDALEE GARFOOT, bequeath my blue and gold socks to Sharon Boyer.

I, PAT GIBSON, bequeath my athletic abilities as a clown on the trampoline to Catherine Crabtree.

I, ROLLIN GOODRICH, bequeath my ability to get to stay in school an extra year to David Lemons.

I, ROXIE HARRIS, bequeath my ability to get married and keep a home, and at the same time go to school, and keep up with my activities to anyone else who can do it.

I, OREN GROVES, bequeath my farming ability to Edwin Miller.

I, EDDIE HALL, bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Boyd to Bill Liembach.

I, GARY HAYES, bequeath my ability to fail English to Barb Austin.

I, BARBARA HENSLEY, bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to Linda Dean.

I, CAROL HODGES, bequeath my shares in the King Edward Cigar Factory to Lynn Rodgers.

I, MARCIA HUGHES, bequeath my nice, quiet ways in class to Karen Earlenbush.

I, TONIA HUGHES, bequeath my gym clothes to anyone who can hold them up.

I, JUDY JACKSON, bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Berry to Rosie Creekmur.

I, LARRY JAMES, bequeath my ability to get with Miss Jackson to Ronnie Terrell and his new girlfriend.

I, KAREN JOURNEY, bequeath my reserved manner to Marcia Walters.

I, JUDY LIMING, bequeath my ability to always have a class ring on my finger all through school to anyone who is having trouble getting one.

I, GENE LOWE, bequeath my bashfulness to Bradley Lienhart.

I, GARY McCLUNG, bequeath my ability to get along with "Squint" during basketball season to LaVerne Malone.

I, HAROLD MARLOW, bequeath my seat in American History class to Alan Marsh.

I, PHILLIP ODLE, bequeath my co-captainship to my brother, Junior.

I, PHYLLIS PULLIUM, bequeath my height to Sally Shambaugh.

I, WALT QUERY, bequeath my whole back seat to Roger Lewis.

I, PHILLIP REASON, bequeath my loud mufflers to Edwin Miller.

I, BOB ROSE, bequeath my F.F.A. President chair to next year's pres.

I, NADINE SKELTON, bequeath my little nose to Judy Roney.

I, GLEN STREICH, bequeath my long hair to Joe Blazer.

I, DARRELL WATTLES, bequeath my judging ability to Roy Hanks.

I, CURTIS WILSON, bequeath my mocassins to Ronnie Terrell.

I, PAT WOOLUMS, bequeath anything I have to anyone who wants anything I have, whatever it is.
